Reglement

Swiss system in seven rounds for teams of 5 players (4 board players + optional reserve player).

Time Control: 90 min/40 moves + 30 minutes for the rest of the game with an increment of 30 seconds per move/from move one. The waiting period is 15 minutes.

Participation

The tournament will be an Open one. Teams from all FIDE federations have the right to participate. They may represent a national federation or any regional structure of a national federation. All players must come from the same federation (same FIDE identification, i.e.: GER).

Each team shall consist of four players, in addition one reserve player may be nominated. The substitute is only allowed to play board 4.

Junior players: age group 2000 and younger

A provisional naming of the players and the substitute has to be submitted together with the registration of the team. Changes in the team can be made until the captains' meeting takes place. Every player has to provide an official document confirming their disability.

Titles

The winning team obtains the title "World Team Champion for People with Disabilities 2018"

The best women's team shall obtain the title "World Women Team Champion for People with Disabilities 2018" (if at least 4 women's teams are participating).

The best junior team shall obtain the title "World Junior Team Champion for People with Disabilities 2018" (if at least 4 junior teams are participating).

Prizes

- |          |                       |
|----------|-----------------------|
| 1. place | Gold medal and 1.000€ |
| 2. place | Silver medal and 650€ |
| 3. place | Bronze medal and 400€ |
| 4. place | Certificate           |
| 5. place | Certificate           |

The team with the best difference of performance obtains a special prize in the amount of about 200.- €.

There will be additional prizes for the best players at each board (board 1 - 4 plus reserve player).

Ranking

The sum of scores of each game in a match is referred to as the board points.

The team which scores more board points in a match than its opponents receives two match points, the opponents receives no match points. In the case a match ends in such a way that the sum of the board points is equal to that of its opponents, each team receives one match point. However, if both teams score 0 board points, both teams will receive zero match points.

The ranking will be determined according to match points, the team obtaining the highest number of match points being declared the winner of the competition. The order of teams that finish with the same number of match points shall be determined by application of the following tie-breaking procedures in sequence, proceeding from (a) to (b) to (c) to (d) the extent required:

(a) by the number of board points won, the highest number wins;

(b) by the sum of Sonneborn-Berger points, which is calculated as follows: match points of each opponent, excluding the opponent who scored the lowest number of match points, multiplied by the number of board points scored against each opponent respectively. The highest number wins;

(c) by the sum of the board points of all team's opponents, the highest number wins;

(d) by the sum of the board points of all opponents defeated plus one half of the board points of all the opponents with which a tied result was achieved, the highest number wins.

Individual prizes in team competitions

The players who achieved the best performance rating on their respective boards shall receive gold medals. Silver and bronze medals shall be awarded to the second and third place winners. For this purpose the players performance score is calculated if the player takes part in at least 70% of the rounds (for basic players) or 50% of the rounds (for reserve players). The highest performance rating wins. In case of a tie it shall be broken by:

- (a) mutual results (if all played each other);
- (b) number of games, the highest number wins;
- (c) percentage score, the highest number wins;
- (d) final ranking of a team, the player in the highest ranked team wins
